

"HI NEIGHBOR, GLAD TO SEE YOU," was the theme of informal greetings as visiting Evansville and host Harrisburg business leaders mingled together near WSIL-TV station Tuesday at noon. The occasion was a stop in Harrisburg by the three-bus caravan of Evansville Chamber of Commerce members on an eight-city swing through southern Illinois and eastern Kentucky on a get-acquainted tour. The group arrived in Harrisburg about noon, with the buses stopping near the West Poplar-Jackson street intersection. Mayor Claud Gibbons of Harrisburg and Evansville Mayor R. Vance Hartke (inset) exchange greetings with a "Hi Neighbor" sign, symbol of the tour, in the background. (Daily Register Staff Photos)

Charge Big Racketeer with Masterminding

Johnny Dio and Three Others Arrested by FBI

NEW YORK (AP) — The underworld empire of Johnny Dio, one of the nation's most powerful racketeers, tottered today with the arrest of masterminding the acid-throwing attack which blinded columnist Victor Riesel.

Dio, who was born John Dioguardia, was arrested by G-men Tuesday along with his brother, Tommy, and two other garment district hoodlums.

The four East Side gangland figures and a fifth conspirator already held as a material witness in the case face arraignment before a U. S. commissioner today. They will be charged with conspiring to obstruct justice in arranging the April 5 sneak attack which took the labor columnist's eyesight.

Riesel, who is in Forest Park, Pa., for the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting, said only that he "was glad the FBI has made the arrests." He said he did not wish to presently say anything more because he expected to be called before a grand jury.

Says Dio Directed Attack

U. S. Attorney Paul W. Williams, who has paraded a host of secret underworld witnesses before two federal grand juries investigating the Riesel case and racketeering in the fur and garment industries, declared Tuesday night:

"Johnny Dio, among others, was the man who directed, instigated and arranged the payoff to (Abraham) Telvi in the acid attack on Victor Riesel. This is in direct relation to Riesel's planned testimony about labor racketeering before the federal grand jury."

Telvi was murdered on the lower East Side July 28. The FBI ac-

Three Buses Here On Tour of Illinois Tri-State Area

The natural resources and scenic beauty of southern Illinois in general and the Harrisburg area in particular were extolled by State Senator Glen Jones Tuesday in speaking to a large group of visiting Evansville business and civic leaders.

The occasion was a stop in Harrisburg of the "Hi Neighbor" tour sponsored by the Evansville Chamber of Commerce through this area on a get acquainted tour.

Senator Jones, in welcoming the men to the city, pointed out that southern Illinois is rich in natural resources, that some of the most beautiful scenery to be found anywhere is in the area and that a drive is on to improve the recreational facilities for tourists.

"We are glad to have you with us today and invite you to come back and enjoy the scenic beauty of southern Illinois," Jones said.

More Than 80 Here
The more than 80 Evansville men arrived in Harrisburg in three large buses and were met by Mayor Claud Gibbons, Commissioners Don Williams and Sneed Jordan and business leaders of Harrisburg.

The group was accompanied by two Evansville motorcycle patrolmen and was escorted from the city limits of Harrisburg to West Poplar street by the Harrisburg police car, driven by Chief Ross Lane.

A program was held on the sidewalk in front of WSIL-TV, with the proceedings telecast.

Welcome by Mayor Gibbons
Mayor Claud Gibbons gave the visitors a warm, official welcome and Harrisburg business men joined with city officials in welcoming the Evansville people to the city.

Responding to the welcome were Evansville Mayor R. Vance Hartke, Chamber of Commerce President J. E. O'Daniel and others.

Following lunch in Harrisburg, served by the women of the First Methodist church at Wesley Center, the touring group loaded into the buses for the next leg of the trip—Rosiclare. Before returning home late yesterday afternoon the Evansville men also visited in Elizabethtown, New Shawneetown and Morganfield, Ky.

The tour got underway yesterday morning, with the first stop in Norris City, then a visit to Ridgway and Eldorado before coming to Harrisburg.

Seen Stealing Cigs At Krogers, Later Seized at Carnival

A carnival employee who gave his name as W. D. White is in the county jail this morning after a cigarette-stealing spree at the Kroger store yesterday.

White, after leaving his car parked outside with the motor running, entered the store yesterday morning, and began shopping, according to Police Chief Ross Lane.

After putting several articles in a shopping basket including six cartons of cigarettes, he stuck four of the cartons under his shirt, abandoned the cart, and started out the door, Lane said. However, Vola Sittig, the store manager, had noticed the incident, and shouted at the man as he went out the door. He made his getaway, but his license number was taken, and the police notified.

Lane went to the fairgrounds, and apprehended White as he was changing clothes in his car.

White did not have any identification, and told police that he was from Texas. Later he said he came from Ohio, then Kentucky. The carnival people said he had been employed for only three days.

Lane said that White, who had been turned over to the county, probably would be charged with drunken driving, and that Kroger probably would file charges of petit larceny. He was fingerprinted this morning, and Lane said that a full check would be made on the man.

Name Hubert Fox Head of Troubled Crab Orchard Unit

CRAB ORCHARD, Illinois (AP) — Strife-ridden Crab Orchard Unit 3 schools will open Sept. 5 after a newly formed board swung quickly into action Tuesday.

Last week, Williamson County School Supt. Russell Emery ousted four members for what he called "willful neglect of duty." The three remaining members of the board named Rudolph Fullee of Crab Orchard as a member, giving the board a quorum.

Hubert Fox, Marion florist and former Harrisburg school man, was named a unit superintendent. The board also set registration for Sept. 4, with classes to open the following day. The unit has about 500 pupils. The board accepted the resignation of Ernest Arms of Harrisburg as principal and reelected Laverne Sanders in that post.

In July, the State Teachers Certification Board revoked the supervisory certificate of Arms who had been hired as principal by the old board.

Emery said an election may be held in about a month to complete the seven-man board.

Ike Asks World To Support Suez Crisis Conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower appealed today for world wide support of the London conference proposal to internationalize the Suez Canal as the best way to "assure a peaceful solution of this great problem."

In a special statement, the President also said he is "glad" Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser is willing to meet with representatives of the London conference to discuss the Suez crisis.

Mr. Eisenhower's statement was read to reporters by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles as he left a two-hour meeting with the President. Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, sat in on the latter stage of the meeting in the President's office.

AN EDUCATIONAL UNIT is being added to the First Baptist church at Stonefort. The addition, 77 feet long and 29 feet wide, will provide 12 classrooms for Sunday school and other church activities. The work is being accomplished by three full time carpenters, plus lots of donated labor. The carpenters are Rev. George Smith, church pastor, at right on the roof; Jack Martin at left of Rev. Smith, and Oren Martin, standing on scaffolding. An unidentified volunteer worker is shown on ground. (Daily Register Staff Photo)

Adding Educational Unit to Stonefort First Baptist

Work is progressing rapidly on the construction of a much needed addition to the Stonefort First Baptist church.

The addition — a 77 feet by 29 feet educational unit — will provide for 12 classrooms for Sunday school and other church activities.

Several rooms will serve dual purposes. In addition to being a Sunday school room, one room will also be the pastor's study; another will double as the church office and another large room can be used as an auditorium for opening exercises for one department, may be used as a dining room and then there are folding door arrangements so it can be divided into four class rooms. And a small kitchenette will be built into one room, with sliding doors to cover the range, cabinets, sink and other kitchen equipment when the room is being used for Bible study.

One room will be a fully equipped nursery, it is reported.

The addition also includes two rest rooms, storage rooms and adequate space for oil heating equipment.

There are sufficient hallways so that every room can be entered without entering any other room. Plans for the addition were obtained from the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn.

The building program, estimated to cost $12,000, is being financed by the sale of bonds bearing 5 percent interest. The bonds will be retired over a thirteen and a half year period. The bonds are guaranteed by the Illinois Baptist Association, Rev. Smith stated, and said all the bonds had not been sold at this time.

The addition joins the present white frame church building, which is about 65 years old.

Junior High to Be Able to Start in Rebuilt Structure

Building Destroyed by Fire Year Jan. 1, 1955, Not Entirely Completed But Can Be Used

Harrisburg Junior High school students will attend their own school when the term opens Tuesday, September 4.

Reconstruction of the old building, destroyed by fire January 1, 1955, will not be entirely completed, but work is sufficiently advanced that it will not be necessary to send the students to the grade school buildings as was done last year.

Practically all class rooms will be ready for occupancy, though not fully equipped, and the school will be in operation with complete facilities within a short time after the opening day.

Seventh grade students will meet Tuesday morning at 8:30 in the Little Theatre and will be dismissed before noon.

The eighth grade will assemble at the same place at 1 o'clock. These separate registrations are necessary because the auditorium is the last portion of the building to be completed.

Textbooks will be distributed on Tuesday. Book rental for seventh grade is $7.30 and for the eighth grade $7.40.

New students will select one, two or three elective subjects, according to their ability and past records from the following list:

Band, public speaking, vocal music, orthography, foreign languages (French, Spanish and Latin), Illinois history, Latin American social studies, advanced mathematics, creative writing, first aid and home nursing, agriculture, sociology, art, special athletics for boys and world literature.

The cafeteria will begin operation Wednesday noon with single meals costing thirty cents or $1.40 by the week.

Ralph Maxwell, Supreme Court Justice, Dies

Dies of Cancer After Illness of About Three Months

KIRKWOOD, Mo. (AP) — Ralph L. Maxwell, 51, Illinois Supreme Court justice, died early today at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Maxwell, of Nashville, Ill., was a victim of cancer.

The jurist had been ailing for about three months and had made one trip to the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn.

Maxwell was born at Nashville and attended both the University of Illinois undergraduate and law schools. He began his practice in his hometown in 1932.

In 1936 Maxwell was elected state's attorney for Washington County, and was re-elected to that office in 1940. He was elected to a nine-year term on the state Supreme Court bench in 1951 and was scheduled to assume the duties of Chief Justice for the term to begin in September. The seriousness of his illness was understood by his associates, but his early death was not anticipated.

Maxwell married the former Beulah House, of Nashville. He is also survived by a daughter, Madalyn, an attorney in the attorney general's office at Springfield.

Funeral services are scheduled for Friday at 2:30 p. m. (CST) at the First Presbyterian church in Nashville. Beginning at noon Thursday, the body will be at the Robert N. Smith Funeral Home in Nashville.

Maxwell was elected from the district that includes Saline county and is well-known by many local persons. He made trips into the county when he was campaigning for the office in 1951.

Empty Cesspool Mess on Road, Have to Remove It

PARIS, Ill. (AP) — Two men who operate a cesspool cleaning truck Tuesday were fined for emptying a load of cesspool sediment on a country road near here.

They were ordered to clean up the mess, 1,500 pounds of it. Fred W. Brooks, Colby, Kan., owner of the truck, was fined $100 and costs. Elvin J. Henkel, Benkleman, Neb., Brooks' helper, who said he was asleep when the truck was emptied, was fined $1 and costs.

Brooks elected to serve out his fine in jail, but he paid Henkel's so Henkel could clean up the road. Brooks was surprised at objections to the dumping of the sediment. "We always do it in Nebraska," he said.

Gives Decision Before Welfare Fund Quizzing

Appears Shaken as He Tells Newsmen Of His Withdrawal

CHICAGO (AP) — Cook County Treasurer Herbert C. Paschen, under fire for welfare fund irregularities in his office, withdrew today as Democratic candidate for governor.

Paschen asked the Democratic State Central Committee to accept his resignation and appoint a successor.

He issued the statement 15 minutes before he was scheduled to appear before investigators for the Senate Banking and Currency Committee, who have been inquiring into operation of the welfare fund.

Appears Shaken

Appearing shaken, Paschen opened the door to his inner office and invited newsmen in. He was carrying a raincoat and wore a hat.

He handed his public relations man a typewritten statement and said:

"This is my statement. I will not pose for television, movies or pictures. I have no further statement to make."

Then he pushed his way out of the crowded office and left.

Formal Statement

His formal statement said: "I have been deliberating the question of whether or not I should withdraw as the Democratic candidate for governor. In these deliberations, the considerations have been my family, the good reputation I have established over the past years, loyalty to the Democratic Party and to my fellow candidates for election in November.

"My friends and fellow workers in personal and political life have urged me to continue my candidacy for governor. But I feel I must devote all of my energy and time to help attempts to blot out my reputation."

Second Withdrawal

"Further, I wish to make sure that the issues this fall are clear in the public's mind so that the Democratic Party may present to the people of Illinois the real issues of this campaign."

Paschen's withdrawal from the ticket was the second to mark the current campaign.

On the Republican side, deposed State Auditor Orville E. Hodge, now serving a prison term for looting the state treasury, was forced to resign as a candidate for re-election to the auditor's office.

Paschen's withdrawal had been urged by Mayor Richard Daley of Chicago, a power in state Democratic politics, who felt that Paschen would be a drag on the ticket and hurt Adlai Stevenson's chances in the presidential election.

More Questioning

Paschen, who appeared before the County Grand Jury for an hour and 15 minutes Tuesday, faced more questions today about the fund from representatives of the U. S. Senate Banking and Currency Committee. The committee investigators have been interviewing bankers in the case and also have been inquiring about the affairs of banks connected with the state's Orville E. Hodge case.

Paschen refused to answer newsmen's questions about his grand jury appearance after it was over Tuesday.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND by DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Texas Was Determined To Block Kefauver; California Delegates Almost Riot On Convention Floor; Jimmy Roosevelt Guards The Microphone.

(Ed. Note — Drew Pearson today continues the dramatic inside story of the last day of the Chicago convention.

WASHINGTON. — The Texas delegation was holding its secret caucus between the first and second ballot during that thrill-packed, seessaw race to nominate the Democratic vice president. Pat Wiggins, alert United Press reporter, had smuggled her way in.

Gerald C. Mann of Dallas spoke up for Senator Kennedy of Massachusetts. There were boos. Rep. Wright Patman of Texas spoke up for Kefauver. "We can't sell Kennedy in Texas," he said. There was some favorable reaction. Sam Rayburn was called on. "We've got a choice of two men — Kennedy and Kefauver," he said, "and I'm for Kennedy."

This clinched it. Johnson backed Kennedy. In two minutes the boos were changed to unanimous approval. Rayburn and Johnson had spoken.

Kennedy had almost unseated Lyndon Johnson as Democratic leader of the Senate by knifing his fellow Democrat, Congressman Foster Furcolo, when Furcolo ran against GOP Senator Saltonstall in Massachusetts. As a result, Saltonstall won and Johnson clung to his leadership by a narrow one-vote margin.

Old guard hatred of Kefauver is intense, however, and Johnson was out to block him.

CHICAGO GOES TO KENNEDY

On the second ballot, votes began to pile up for Kennedy. Some took their cue from Stevenson's own Illinois delegation which threw 46 votes to Kennedy. This was interpreted as meaning private Stevenson support for Kennedy.

Chicago boss Jake Arvey had told Kefauver leaders that he was for "the Keef," but Arvey switched to Mayor Wagner of New York in deference to Tammany boss De Sapio. Charming Irish Mayor Richard J. Daley swung most of Illinois to Kennedy. Bill Connors, boss of Chicago's 42nd ward and Stevenson's alternate in the Illinois delegation, also voted for Kennedy.

The bandwagon rush for the young senator from Massachusetts was on.

In the Stock Yards Inn, Kennedy still in undershorts, lay on his bed and watched his vote pile up. He had planned to take a bath. The water was still running.

"New Jersey is switching from Wagner to Kennedy," phoned Rep. Torbert MacDonald of Massachusetts. It did. The bandwagon continued.

KEFAUVER HUDDLES

In a near-by room in the Stock Yards Inn, Jiggs Donohue urged Kefauver to talk to Minnesota's Senator Humphrey, persuade him to pull out of the race. Humphrey was operating from a room off the convention hall, and Estes was reluctant to enter the hall. He recalled the commotion he created when he entered the hall in 1952.

Finally Donohue had his way. Kefauver sneaked into the convention building, half hiding his face, and went up to Humphrey's office.

During most of the second ballot the two rivals sat together watching the scoreboard. Repeatedly, Kefauver and Donohue urged Humphrey to throw in the towel. He was losing delegates on every vote. But though Kefauver had given him all the Minnesota votes on the first ballot, Humphrey kept hoping for a political miracle. He hung on.

Out on the convention floor there was bedlam. California passed. Earlier that day California had caucused. Result: Kefauver 33, Humphrey 23 1-2, Kennedy 10 1-2. Pat Brown 1/4 After the first ballot, delegation chairman Brown tried to caucus on the floor. The confusion was terrific.

JIM FARLEY PLEADS

Bill Malone, boss of San Francisco, kept demanding that the delegation switch to Kennedy. Congressman Jack Shelly, member of the Teamsters Union, asked to make a speech to California delegates right on the floor. He did so—above the roar of the convention.

Dixon and Hart Reunion Held at Ft. Massac Park

August 26 the annual Dixon and Hart reunion was held at Ft. Massac park in Metropolis.

About 10 a. m. the guests began arriving from all directions, finding some of the relatives already there with tables and drinks prepared. The reunion was held in a lovely spot beneath a giant oak tree.

Greetings and visiting took the morning.

The usual bountiful feast was spread shortly after noon as some of the guests were late arrivals. Dr. J. E. Dixon of Mt. Vernon led in a prayer of thanksgiving before the meal.

The business meeting opened with the president, J. R. (Pet) Hart, presiding. Officers elected for the coming year were as follows: President, Dr. J. E. Dixon; secretary, Nell Pate; program committee, Mary Hart Morgan, Clarence Dixon and B. E. Hart.

By a vote it was decided to meet at Dixon Springs on the fourth Sunday in August which has always been the regular date. Short talks by some of each family were enjoyed, being led by the oldest member present, Mrs. Anna Dixon, wife of the late Dr. W. S. Dixon of Metropolis.

The president announced that Aunt Ellen Wasson of Harrisburg RFD had come to the reunion to be with the group, but was unable to walk over the rough ground to the tables. Dr. J. E. Dixon made a motion that the group go greet her, but upon searching failed to locate her. The members were quite sorry, as Aunt Ellen is a dearly beloved friend of both families.

Those who registered were Mr. and Mrs. U. L. Gossage, Gary, Ind.; Mrs. Olive Lackman and Miss Bertis Hart of Metropolis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tanner of Carrier Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson of Harrisburg, Julianne Dixon, Vandalia, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Dixon, Mt. Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Love of Risco, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Leland Love, Morehouse, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harmon, Metropolis, Mrs. Maxine Renshaw, Louisville, Ky.;

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hart, Waukegan, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hart, Alton, Mrs. Mildred (Thornberry) Webb, Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Williams and two children and Misses Wilma Parton and Sally Williams, of Harrisburg, Bryant and Carol Hart, Miss Janet Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Langford, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Hart, Mrs. Maureen Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dixon.

Egyptian Golf Association Entertained At Tournament

The members of the Egyptian Golf Association were entertained with a Sunday afternoon and early evening party.

A couple two-ball foursome golf tournament began at 1 p. m. This proved to be great fun and was enjoyed by all who participated.

Prizes were won by the following couples: Mrs. John C. Wilson and James Gwaltney, Mrs. Joe Harris and Kenneth Davis, and Mrs. Charles Kurto and Jim Sullivan.

At 6 p. m. all members were invited to attend "The Italian Supper Club." The club room was decorated in a festive and "Italian" mood with brightly colored paper, balloons and candles. Individual tables for four were covered in red and white checked table cloths with candles in dripped colored bottles as center pieces. The buffet table was decorated in red and white with huge wicker fruit baskets of polished limes, grapes and magnolia leaves, and with candles in wicker baskets.

The Italian menu consisting of Taglarini, tossed spring salad, garlic bread, dessert and coffee, was served.

The committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Argus, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Dale Cavaness and Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Wirth.

Mrs. Urith Joslin and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Joslin, sister and niece of Miss Nettie Selby, who have been here during the serious illness of Mrs. Edith Nims, sister of Miss Selby and Mrs. Joslin, are returning to Tulsa Sept. 1. Mrs. Nims, who received an injury, had her recovery complicated by arthritis and is improving slowly.

Frank Sharp Honored On Birthday With Supper

A birthday supper was held Friday, August 24, in honor of Frank Sharp's 75th birthday at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ewan of Eldorado.

After a delicious supper home-made ice cream and a beautiful birthday cake were served to the following: Mrs. Al Kerszis, Gary, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pickering and sons, Jerry and Randy, Mrs. C. D. Moore and son, Bobby Dale, Mrs. George Mullinix and sons, Johnnie and David Wayne, all of Hobart, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Loren Dowdy and daughter, Betty, Thompsonville; Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Bain and daughters, Marilouise and Shirley Ann, of Bankston; Mrs. Knox Pickering and daughter, Norma Louise, of Carrier Mills; Donna Jean Ewan, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ewan and daughters, Carla Jean, Gail and Vicki Lynn of Eldorado and the honored guest, Frank Sharp.

TO OBSERVE GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. Orval Allen of 902 North Main will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a lawn party at their home Sunday, Sept. 2, from 4 to 6 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to relatives and friends. The Allens have one son, Percy, of 905 North Main street, Harrisburg. (J. R. Metcalf Photo)

Marriage of Miss Ann Voigt, Dr. W. C. Grater Solemnized in Dallas

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Ann Voigt, daughter of Mrs. Ben Catchings of Slaton, Texas, and Dr. William C. Grater of Dallas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grater of Equality, which took place Saturday, Aug. 25, at 4 p. m. in Dickerson Chapel of the First Methodist church in Dallas, Texas.

The Rev. Gerald McCullom officiated at the ceremony during which Mrs. Bonnie Hall and Mrs. George Soderstrom presented wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Clarence Voigt, wore a ballerina length gown of re-embroidered lace over taffeta. Her illusion veil was attached to a plateau headpiece of lace, tulle and pearls. She carried white roses, stephanotis with a white orchid.

Miss Joyce Lanell Vaigt of Galveston attended her sister and Dr. William Pickett served as best man.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Dallas Athletic Country Club attended by 150 doctors, wives and friends. Out of town guests included the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grater of Equality, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lowe, Eldorado, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Smith of Omaha, uncles and aunts of the groom.

The bride was graduated from King's Daughters Nursing School and Temple Junior College.

The bridegroom received his bachelor's degree at the University of Illinois and his medical degree at the university's medical school. Doctor Grater was also graduated from Northwestern University with his Master of Science degree and took further training at the University of Texas Medical School. He is a member of the American Board and the American Medical Association, is a Phi Beta Kappa and is affiliated with Alpha Sigma Phi and Nu Sigma Nu fraternities. His medical practice is located in Dallas.

The couple will reside at 6403 Sonda in Dallas following a wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco.

Naomi Sunday School Class Elects Officers

Mrs. Bettie Norman was hostess to the Naomi Sunday school class of the Pankeyville Baptist church Thursday evening, August 23.

The meeting was opened with the singing of the class song "Jesus Saves." Mrs. Ruth Gates gave a beautiful devotion, reading the 46 Psalm and using the thought, "What Jesus Means to You." Roll call was answered with a scripture verse containing the word "Harvest."

Prayers were offered by Mrs. Alta Norman and Mrs. Fern Waddell.

The president, Mrs. Blanche Lauderdale, presided over a short business meeting during which the following class officers were chosen for the coming year: Mrs. Lauderdale, chairman; Mrs. Ruth Gates, vice chairman; Mrs. Gertrude Hayes, secretary; Mrs. Alta Norman, reporter; Mrs. Blanche Shacklett, Mrs. Fern Waddell and Mrs. Gertrude Hayes, flower committee.

Mrs. Hattie Moyer dismissed with prayer after which Mrs. Moyer conducted a period of recreation.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Norman, who was to leave the next morning to spend some time with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Underwood, in Nashville, Tenn.

Card of Thanks

Mere words are inadequate to express our gratitude to all who were so kind to us following the death of Mrs. Lena Agin, our mother. To each and everyone who has helped us through these days of sorrow with beautiful flowers, words of sympathy and deeds of infinite kindness, we can only say, "Thank you so much." We especially thank the Rev. Durfee, the Harrisburg Funeral Home, the singers and pall bearers.

MURDER

By Brett Halliday

Copyright 1956 by Brett Halliday Distributed by NEA Service

XXVIII

Gordon's face indicated polite disbelief that any guest of the Roney Plaza could possibly be mixed up in anything as sordid as being a murderer or the victim of one.

There was a light tap on his door and a pretty, plump girl dressed in a maid's uniform entered hesitantly. She looked quickly from Shayne to Gordon, and then moved to stand in front of the desk.

Gordon glanced at a notation he had made and said, "This gentleman would like to ask you a few questions about 1210, Irma."

"That's Mr. Barnes and Miss Mary," she said questioningly, turning to Shayne. "Real nice, both of them."

"I'm glad to hear that, Irma," Shayne reassured her. "I wish you'd describe them to me the best you can."

"Miss Mary is pretty. A little thing. Young-like. About 20, I guess. She's got real blonde hair and—and, well, she's real nice. A lady. Always says thank you. And tips me when she wants something extra. I do hope nothing's wrong."

Shayne said gravely, "I hope so too. Now, about her brother. Does he—have a scarred face?"

"Oh, no," Irma looked shocked by the question. "Real nice-looking he is. Some older than Miss Mary."

"You're sure about the scar?" "Of course I'm sure. I've seen him plenty, being in and out like I am."

Shayne sighed. "About how tall? What weight?"

"Just medium, I'd say. Shorter than you by inches. I don't know how much men weigh. But he isn't fat—nor thin either. Just medium-like."

Shayne didn't show his disappointment. He said, "I know you're a smart girl, Irma, and you girls are trained to notice all sorts of things about your guests. Now think hard and see if you can remember anything in particular about the Barnes. Anything you overheard or noticed?"

"Well, I'd say they had plenty of money and were used to nice things. Their clothes and all. And they acted like they were having a good time. Miss Mary in particular, she loved swimming and went in twice most every day. Mr.

Barnes went out more than she did."

"Did they entertain much?"

"No, they didn't for a fact. Miss Mary, she'd stay in mostly in the evenings. Have her dinner served up there a lot, and then she'd read."

"While her brother was out?" Shayne supplied.

"Well, yes. He likes a good time, all right. But that's why folks come to Miami on vacation, isn't it?"

Shayne agreed it was, and after a few more questions he dismissed her with thanks. "He shook his head wryly at Gordon when she went out."

"There went a beautiful theory up in thin smoke. I'm beginning to think maybe it is Barnes who was murdered. The vague description fits him all right. We may have to ask her to come over to the morgue to look at him."

"Anything you want," Gordon said. There was another knock at the door and a thin boy came in and stood stiffly at attention.

Yes, he took care of 1210 until midnight, and knew both the occupants by sight—the girl much better than her brother because she was mostly in and wanting service while he was on duty.

His descriptions of Mary and Charles Barnes coincided in all important details with the maid's.

Charles was about 25, and his sister maybe 21. He put Charles at 160 pounds.

As he was leaving, a girl came in the office with two sheets of paper that had typing on them.

Gordon studied them in frowning silence for a time. They were day-to-day notations of outgoing calls from 1210, kept by the hotel for billing purposes, and they disclosed little of real interest to Shayne except the recurrence of calls to a certain number in Miami which he recognized at once as the Hibiscus Hotel.

Shayne studied the list as Gordon passed it to him, found the first listing of the Hibiscus number almost a week after they arrived. Then it appeared irregularly every day or so afterward. The last time that number had been called was 4:30 p. m. of that day.

And that was all Shayne was able to get from the Roney Plaza about Charles and Mary Barnes.

11:35 P. M.

Chief Gentry was seated at his desk listening intently to the telephone when Shayne burst into his office in long strides.

There was a smugly satisfied look on Gentry's florid face when he finally put the phone down.

"That was New York," he told Shayne. "They checked the Barnes address and found it's a penthouse apartment. Charles Barnes lives there with his younger sister, Mary. They closed the place a couple of weeks ago and took off for a vacation in Miami."

"Just fine."

"And the forwarding address they left for mail is the Roney Plaza Hotel on the Beach."

He reached for the phone, but Shayne stopped him with a gesture. "I just came from the Roney. Charles Barnes has no scar. His description fits the dead man to a T."

Thinking It Over

By Robert L. Diefenbacher, D.D.
Written for NEA Service

Bills, bills, bills—every month they come through the mail to claim part or all of our income. Some of the bills are for unavoidable items such as light, heat, water, taxes, food or clothing. Others are for services which have been rendered to maintain our standards of living. A number of these requests for payment are for luxuries, or for things which merely add to our joy of living.

Month after month we obligate ourselves to pay for things already received or enjoyed. This credit plan is highly developed in America where we have a strong sense of security, and where we have faith in the future. We believe that tomorrow will be as good as today.

Probably the biggest weakness in this delayed payment plan is that we have come to take it for granted. We merely assume that we shall earn our keep and a surplus each pay period. In fact, if anything affects our periodic income for even a single day we gripe and growl.

We need faith in the consistencies of God and in man's ability to maintain steady income if we are to meet our bills and maintain our credit. We need to develop some reserves of faith in God, and belief in man if we are to maintain our credit system, pay our bills, and overcome our feeling of self-satisfaction. Do not take either God or our economy for granted.

Teen-Agers Also Take Coffee Break

NEW YORK (AP)—Milk still is the favorite drink of the nation's teen-agers. But coffee is making gains.

The Pan-American Coffee Bureau says it has just finished a study of teenage beverage consumption and finds that 80 per cent of the 15 to 19-year group drink milk, and that 46 per cent consume some coffee each day, usually at breakfast. Fifty-five per cent drink some soft drinks daily.

The bureau said its studies show that coffee is not competing with milk, but generally is regarded as an additional beverage and has parental blessing.

Hi-Tri Plans For Big Year At High School

The Harrisburg Hi-Tri is once again planning a big year for the year 1956 and 1957. Hi-Tri is one of the largest clubs in H. T. H. S., for girls only and is very beneficial. The aim of Hi-Tri: Courtesy, friendship, character, success, and the watchword loyalty well explain for themselves the worthiness of this club.

The first day of school the old members of Hi-Tri along with the freshman girls will remain in the gym after everyone is dismissed to go to homerooms. The upper classmen will then take a freshman girl and show her to her homeroom. This has been practiced in previous years and has proved quite successful.

This year Hi-Tri is adding something new to its plans. The first day of school volunteers will be called for from the old members. These girls will wear tags which say "ask me" during the first week of school. It is hoped that this plan will help freshmen become acquainted with the school in a shorter length of time.

The Hi-Tri is planning an interesting program for this year. All girls who are interested in Hi-Tri are urged to join. There will also be a new registration of old members this year.

The Harrisburg Hi-Tri is headed by Mary Jane Gibbons. Janice Gidcomb is vice-president. Lee Anna Cummins Price, secretary, and Joan Priest, treasurer. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Hermann Dunn, assisted by Miss Bernice Patterson.

Untruth

There is no evidence of the truth of the belief that if squirrels gather a large supply of nuts in autumn, a long, cold winter will follow.

Speaking of Smiths: H. Allen of That Name Wrote Book on Them

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (AP)—There are days when folks like Nichols and Flossiflossis wish their names were Smith.

Joe Smith, the man of the hour, almost got his name placed in nomination at the GOP convention in San Francisco as a candidate for V. P.

But hoping doesn't do any good for 1,500,000 Smiths about in the U. S.

Thinking about this, I fell to digging through my library and found a book written awhile back by my friend H. Allen—last name of Smith.

Allen got to looking through the record and discovered that somebody, way back, had written a book about buttons. That, he thought, interested hardly anybody but collectors of buttons.

There must be more Smiths in the world than collectors of buttons, he thought. So my friend set to work collecting information about the man Smith.

All Kinds of Smiths

It took a bit of time, but he came up with a volume called "People Named Smith." He found only "two alleged books" about Smiths. One of them was published around the turn of the century, and Allen remarked that this was put out by a "retarded eighth grader." It was a pamphlet. Only five or six pages of Smiths. The second was no improvement.

H. Allen Smith is no holder-back when it comes to getting the family name in print. His book runs 255 pages and there are any number of Smiths of all kinds mentioned on every page. That adds up to the thousands.

"The Smiths of this world are common only in the sense that they are numerous. It is a large subject," Allen says.

Allen has little truck with what he likes to call the "hybrid Smiths," the "almost Smiths" and the "hyphenated Smiths."

He claims that the Smith clan not only is the leader of names in the United States, but also in Britain. In this country, the Smiths are followed by the Johnsons and the Browns and where do you reckon the Nelsons wind up? Twentieth, that's where!

Many Joe Smiths

While he was fretting with his volume, Allen had a lot of fun with a fellow from Omaha. This gent wanted very much to be mentioned.

The Nebraska man said that in 1941 he had put aside a supply of a new indoor record, according to Smith. The popper and eater wouldn't have gotten into the volume unless his name had been Sam you-know-what.

And how about this "Joe Smith?" I called Allen on the long distance and asked him how many Joes run around wearing the last name of Smith?

"Golly," the old reporter said, "there must be several." According to the mail, there sure must be.

HERE'S WHERE IT ALL STARTED—Oliver Rollins gives his mother, left, Mrs. Eva Rollins and sister, Marilyn, a big hug to show them just how glad he is to be back home. In background is the homemade basketball goal where Ollie first learned to "hit the hoop". The many hours of practice in the backyard court led him to high school fame and then to the Globe Trotters. His brother, Vern, wasn't at home when picture was made.

Looking at Sports

BY BILL MELTON

Oliver Rollins, the Carrier Mills Harlem Globe Trotter, came home Monday.

I had a long talk with Ollie Monday afternoon and two things stood out above everything else—1. Rollins has had the experience of a life time and 2. Rollins sure is glad to be back home.

Back about May 15 Rollins, who had made basketball history at the Carrier Mills high school and thru-out southern Illinois, joined the Harlem Globe Trotter unit going to Europe. The group departed from New York City by airplane and before returning to New York last Saturday, Aug. 25, they had played basketball in practically every country in Europe, the British Isles and the Arab countries. The tour took the Trotters to most of the principle cities of the countries visited and approximately 120 basketball games were played, with several double headers on the schedule.

Daily Register stories have mentioned countries visited by the Trotters, but it won't hurt to repeat—Scotland, Ireland, England, Spain, France, Switzerland, Italy, Greece, Lebanon, Syria, Turkey, Yugoslavia, Austria, Germany, Holland, Sweden and Norway—Rollins and his teammates were getting a real lesson in geography as well as playing basketball.

And Rollins states they made a side trip to Hawaii. Seems that bossman Abe Saperstein had some business in the Hawaiian Islands and took the entire troupe along for a sightseeing trip. Globe Trotters? Sure 'nuff!

Rollins had lots of "tall tales" to tell. The guy has been places.

"We travelled first class all the way; ate the best of food, stayed in fine hotels. Abe really took care of us," Rollins declared.

Ollie not only was the youngest rookie on this trip, he is the youngest player ever taken abroad by Abe Saperstein. In the group of ten players were eight regulars and two newcomers and the other rookie—Ben Jackson—the university basketball back of him. Rollins, just 19, was graduated from CMCHS this past spring.

Other members of the Trotter team were Meadow Lemon, Woodrow Sauldsberry, Leon Hillard, Clarence Wilson, Andy Johnson, Ernest Wagner, Bill "Rookie" Brown and Carl Green.

Ollie states that he and Hillard teamed up in a third-quarter comedy act. Hillard is the dribbling wizard of the team.

Rollins played in 105 games on the trip, performing at forward and guard. States he scored quite a few points, but most of the time he was picking up the Trotter style of basketball.

He will play this winter with the southern division of Harlem Globe Trotters. All players will report in Chicago Oct. 1, for a training period of one month, then they hit the road for a five or six months playing throughout the United States.

The Trotters landed in New York at 7:30 a. m. Saturday after a 22 1/2 hour flight from Sweden. Rollins then flew to Chicago, took a bus to Harrisburg and a taxi to his home in Carrier Mills, surprising his family about 6 o'clock Monday morning.

In talking about the coming winter tour Rollins said "I sure hope we can play here at home. I want to play on the Carrier Mills floor again." When asked if he was getting sentimental in his "old age," he just grinned and said "Don't know what you call it, but I just want to play at home."

He was very busy Monday—and will be for days to come—telling his folks about the trip and greeting friends and neighbors. The trip abroad offered a lot, but the folks, friends and neighbors were missing.

Ollie enjoyed himself the past three months, but he's glad to be home.

Billy Herman Observes 25th Year in Majors

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Brooklyn Coach Billy Herman celebrated his 25th year in the major leagues Tuesday when the Dodgers played the Chicago Cubs. Herman, who broke in with the Cubs, recalled how he got a hit his first time up off Siles Johnson and then was hit on the head by the curballer his next time up.

Sugar Bowl Seeks to Water Down Strict Segregation Law

NEW ORLEANS (U.P.)—Sugar Bowl officials were expected to publicly announce today a plan to water down a strict segregation law which bans all racially mixed athletics in Louisiana.

Letters went out late Tuesday to the 140 state legislators, who meet in a special 12-day session called by Gov. Earl Long for Thursday, asking them to give the Sugar Bowl their support.

The plan, a bold one for this segregation-conscious state, was to seek the signatures of each lawmaker as authors of a bill which would exempt cities over 100,000 population in the state from the terms of the racial bill.

This would keep alive ambitious sports dreams for the cities of New Orleans, Shreveport and Baton Rouge.

The Legislature unanimously approved a bill during the recent regular 60-day session which outlaws the mixing of Negro and white players in any professional or amateur sports events in Louisiana.

Decision Kayoes Champ

NEW ORLEANS (U.P.)—Newly crowned world's lightweight champion Joe Brown was kayoed by a judge's decision Tuesday when he was fined $35 for speeding.

Calhoun Favored to Spin Spider Webb In 10-Round Fight

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Middleweight Spider Webb discounted his underdog rating today for tonight's TV fight against unbeaten Rory Calhoun, winner of 23 straight bouts. "I'm in the best shape I've ever been in," Webb said, "and now I know I can go 10 rounds, so that's not a mental worry any more. I think I can win the fight, so the odds don't mean anything."

Calhoun was roughly a nine to five favorite to win. The odds-makers insisted on one to two, if you bet on Calhoun, and were offering only eight to five to Webb backers.

Don Bessent's Value to Dodgers

IN THE

Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (U.P.)—The talk is all about the "old men" but it may well be a youngster who plays the major role for the aged Brooklyn Dodgers in the closing stages of the National League pennant race.

Certainly much depends on the performances of such "old pros" as Jackie Robinson, PeeWee Reese, Duke Snider, Roy Campanella et al. But the final proof probably will be in the pitching.

Which, the way he has been going, makes Don Bessent figure to be one of the major deciding factors as they hammer down to the wire.

Dodger hopes faltered when Clem Labine, the number one fireman of the Brooks, suffered a wrist fracture as he was struck by a pitched ball. Yet, don't overlook the fact that the spunky Bessent has taken up the slack by pitching 25 straight scoreless innings in relief.

Top Trouble Shooter

Bessent is called "the weasel" by his mates because of a thin sharp face. The right-hander from Jacksonville, Fla., also is called "Mr. Peepers" because of the mild manner in which he peers through his glasses. Manager Walt Alton calls him when there's trouble.

One thing seems certain, even to the pressurized "old pros" on the club. This is that Bessent won't fold up when the going gets rough. The 25-year old six-footer has seen too many tough times already to quail in adversity.

The Yankees signed him originally when he was a high school hot shot and he bore up their expectations when he compiled a 22-7 mark at La Grange, Ga. The next season, at Norfolk, he was 11-2 when misfortune struck for the first time.

"I was pitching and I felt a sharp pain," he recalls quietly. "I had torn two vertebrae apart and pinched a nerve."

Bessent was paralyzed from the waist down and, after an operation, spent a year in a cast and a brace. He missed all of 1952 because of that bone grafting operation and the Dodgers drafted him from the Binghamton roster.

Knew He Had Talent

"It was a calculated risk," says Vice President Buzzy Bavasi. They knew he had talent. The question was whether he could come back. But he did.

Don posted an 11-10 mark at St. Paul in 1953, 12-13 in 1954 and was 8-5 when the Dodger pitching wobbled last season and they called him up along with Roger Craig. Don upheld their judgment by winning eight in a row with what Campanella describes as "a real good sinker," a curve, fast ball and fine change up. But control is his main forte.

Big things were expected of Don this spring but he was sidelined in March with a groin injury, underwent another shuffling operation and didn't make his first start until late May. Now, however, he is roaring back in the stretch just as he did last season.

Redlegs' Robinson Nears Rookie Record for Home Runs; Phils Beat Cards

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

Cincinnati's power-packed Redlegs, on their way to a new major league record, blessed the all-mighty home run today while the Milwaukee Braves cursed it for shaving their National League lead to 1 1/2 games.

To add to the general home run turmoil, Mickey Mantle clouted his 45th Tuesday night to move five games ahead of Babe Ruth's record pace in a 4-0 victory by the Yankees over the Athletics.

The Redlegs really hit the home run jackpot in their 11-1 romp over the Giants. Rookie Frank Robinson hit two, and Ed Bailey contributed a three-run homer to help Joe Nuxhall coast to his 10th triumph.

Robinson's two homers gave him a total of 34, only four short of the rookie record set by Wally Berger of the Boston Braves in 1930. The Redlegs, with a total of 189 homers so far, are now seven home runs ahead of the Giants' pace of 1947 when the Polo Grounders set the all-time major league mark of 221.

Dale Long's three-run homer in the seventh inning broke the backs of the Braves and figured prominently in the Pirates' come-from-behind 5-4 victory. Until the seventh, veteran Warren Spahn had a 4-0 lead, thanks to a pair of homers by Eddie Mathews.

Then the roof fell in with Long's

25th homer highlighting a four-run rally that tied the score. Dick Groat supplied the clincher in the eighth when he singled off loser Bob Trowbridge to bring home Frank Thomas with the winning run.

The defeat left the Braves only a game and a half ahead of the second-place Dodgers, who divided a doubleheader with the Cubs. Brooklyn rallied for three runs in the ninth to win the opener, 6-4, but Chicago took the nightcap, limited to 7 1/2 innings by darkness.

Singles by Carl Furillo and Jackie Robinson featured the Dodgers' winning rally in the opener as Don Newcombe registered his 21st victory in relief. The Cubs decided the nightcap with two runs in the seventh on Gene Baker's homer and Hobie Landrith's walk with the bases loaded.

Home runs by Marv Blaylock, Solly Hemus and Del Ennis gave the Phillies a 6-4 victory over the Cardinals. Southpaw Curt Simmons overcame an unsteady start to post his 11th victory.

Mantle's homer, a three-run job off Art Ditmar in the third inning, was the payoff blow in the Yankees' victory over Kansas City. The game, halted after innings by rain, also featured Bob Turley's two-run pitching, good for his eighth victory against three defeats.

By winning, the Yankees went eight games ahead of the second-place Indians, who fell before Ray Moore of Baltimore, 1-0. Tosses Four-Hitter Moore tossed a four-hitter to

Raleigh Cops Pony League Title 26-23

By DAVID NELSON

Raleigh won the Pony League championship Tuesday by pounding out a 26-23 slugfest win over the Pirates, the winners of the first half of play. This game was the second of a three-game series to decide the winner, and Raleigh won the first two to cop the championship.

The winning Raleigh team scored in every inning, getting four in the first, three in the second, four in the third, two in the fourth, 11 in the fifth, and two in the sixth. The losers tallied four runs in the first frame, three in the fourth, one in the fifth, and 15 in the sixth.

D. Phelps led Raleigh at the plate with five for five; G. Woodard and L. Cochran had three hits each, K. Ramsey picked up two safe blows, and S. Taylor, J. Woodard, and S. Harris hit safely once to round out the winners' 16-hit attack.

For the losers at the plate, Stan Howton had three safeties, Morgan, M. Howton, G. Howton, Smith and Reed hit safely twice each, and Summers, Bohn, and Owen picked up singles.

G. Woodard was the winning pitcher, and M. Howton took the loss. This was the final Kiwanis League game of the 1956 season.

Only Democrats Concerned About Farmer Says Adlai

SIoux CITY, Iowa (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said today that the Democrats are "the only party" that is "concerned about the farmers' plight."

The Democratic presidential nominee said that "historically" the farmer has "gotten in trouble" under Republican administrations, and "prospered" under the Democrats.

He said he and his running mate, Sen. Estes Kefauver, came here for a regional party meeting to "hear the farmers' story" and learn how to "drive this story home" to the people.

Stevenson and Kefauver flew here from Portland, Ore., where they attended a conference of party officials from the Pacific Northwest Tuesday.

Co-Ed Lucy Loses Expulsion Appeal

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Federal Judge Hobart Grooms declined today to overrule the University of Alabama's order expelling Negro co-ed Lutherine Lucy Foster. The judge said the federal courts "should not interfere with the administrative acts of the university."

Mrs. Foster was permanently expelled last Feb. 29 after she brought unproven charges against school officials. She had accused them of conspiring to create riots that led to her exclusion from the campus.

Find Second Body from Plane Reds Shot Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy announced today that a second body has been recovered from the Navy patrol plane shot down last week off the Communist China coast.

The body, not yet identified, was found by a United States destroyer in the same general vicinity where bits of wreckage of the patrol plane and the first body were recovered last Friday.

The area is 90 miles southeast of Shanghai and off the mouth of Hangchow Bay.

First Aid Course For Bus Drivers To Start Sept. 6

A first aid course for new bus drivers has been announced by C. R. Gardner, county superintendent of schools. The class will meet once each week for six consecutive weeks, meeting three hours each session under the direction of Louie Beltz of the Junior high school and Mrs. Ray Altmore.

The first meeting of the class will be held at 6:30 p. m. Thursday, Sept. 6, at the Harrisburg Junior high school.

The law requires that all school bus drivers have a first aid certificate which is to be renewed after three years from date of issuance. The class is also open to any teachers who would care to enroll.

Cairo Named For Suez Talks

LONDON (AP)—Cairo has been fixed as the meeting place for talks between Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser and the five-power committee set up in London to discuss the future of the Suez Canal, the state-controlled Cairo Radio said today.

The announcement came as informed sources said the old Suez Canal Co. has given Egypt two weeks to reach a settlement of the canal crisis before withdrawing its 900 key officials and pilots in a move that would paralyze Suez operations.

The company, nationalized by Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser on July 26, set the deadline as Anglo-Egyptian relations worsened and there was talk in Cairo of an open diplomatic break.

Mill Operations Told to Kiwanians

all the produce farmers in this area have for sale to do a large volume of business on a small margin.

The firm handled about 100,000 bushels of wheat during the season just completed and plans an additional hopper whereby farmers may speed the unloading of grain in the future.

He explained wheat is graded on the same basis for all farmers and the firm will grade and test wheat for all farmers regardless of where they sell their grain. Available also are scales where farmers' produce or livestock is weighed without charge; however, a small charge is made for weighing coal and other non-farm products.

New Equipment

He stated the firm has a new hammermill and mixer to grind and mix grain for farmers. A second mixer will be added soon to speed the handling of work brought in by farmers. In addition to buying and mixing grain for feed, the firm also cleans seeds for farmers and will custom clean any grain brought in by the farmers. Fertilizer also is sold by the plant.

Mr. Deputy stated that in addition to himself there are four other workers employed by the Harrisburg Mill and Elevator. It is owned by Willard Harris, Frank Farmer and Lindell Pullen of Metropolis, Adolph Smith, Harrisburg, and Mr. Deputy, who at present is living in Golconda but plans to move to Harrisburg.

He explained the process of selling wheat through commission houses and stated most of the grain this year had been sold in St. Louis, Evansville and Decatur and in addition about 15,000 bushels were sold for shipment overseas.

The firm shipped about 50 carloads of wheat with an additional 10,000 bushels shipped by truck. Barge shipments are planned in the future.

Loy Barger was program chairman for the meeting.

Ronnie Doerge, president of the club, announced the board of directors would meet at 7 p. m. Wednesday at his home on South Main street.

Domenico Bando, 47 . . . arrested for narcotics violations . . . started 2½ year term at the federal penitentiary in Danbury, Conn., Jan. 13, 1954.

Charles Salvatore Carlino, 43 . . . arrest record dates back to 1933, including felonious assault and attempted robbery.

The FBI said the "braintrust" conspired with Joseph Peter Carlino, 43, alias Joe Pilo, the contact man, and Gandolfo Miranti, 37, the "finger man," to maim Riesel. Both were arrested Aug. 17 and are being held under $100,000 bond each.

Hired Telvi

The FBI announcement by J. Edgar Hoover in Washington said Dio and Tuso met with Miranti at his East Side candy store about April 1 with $1,000 for the person who would cripple the labor columnist.

Miranti contacted Bando, and Bando through Joseph (Pilo) Carlino hired Telvi to do the job, according to the FBI.

The FBI said Telvi made the attack against Riesel and clumsily splashed some of the acid on his own face, making him "too hot" for the conspirators.
